ORAL JUDGEMENT

Admit.

At the request of the learned Advocates for the parties this matter is finally heard to-day.

Mr. Chhaya for the respondent has stated that the impugned order may be quashed and for that purpose he does not insist for a reasoned order on the ground that the same may come in the way of the suit filed by the respondent. Accordingly, without assigning the reasons and considering the statement made by the learned Advocate for the respondent, the appeal is allowed. The impugned order dated 29-2-96 passed below application, Ex.5, by the learned 2nd Joint Civil Judge (S.D.), Junagadh, is set aside. However, the appellants are directed not to transfer or assigne the suit property in favour of any third party or create any encumbrance thereon till the disposal of the suit. In view of the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case, the suit is directed to be expedited.

In view of the above, notice is discharged with no order as to costs in Civil Application No.3167/96. Ad-interim relief stands vacated.
